

Gangsters of Cinema

Across

- 2 A Jean-Pierre Melville film known for its lengthy and dialogue-less heist sequence (3 words)
- 3 Brian De Palma directs this David Mamet-penned film about Eliot Ness's crusade against Al Capone (2 words)
- 6 Cops and robbers catch some waves together (2 words)
- 7 This Hong Kong film was later remade by Scorsese as a "wicked smaht" Best Picture winner (2 words)
- 11 Parts I and II redefined the gangster genre (2 words)
- 12 An international breakout film depicting the rise of organized crime in a Rio de Janeiro suburb (3 words)
- 13 This recent Chicago-set heist film features a rare all-female lead cast

Down

- 1 Two rival gangs jockey for power in this Prohibition-era film from the Coen Brothers (2 words)
- 3 James Cagney stars alongside a controversial piece of fruit in this pre-Code classic (3 words)
- 4 Scorsese's magnum opus, arguably
- 5 A young man navigates a thriving gang culture in his LA neighborhood in John Singleton's film (4 words)
- 8 A pre-Code godfather of the gangster genre, later remade with Al Pacino
- 9 The acquisition of a supernatural ability threatens all in this dystopian anime crime film
- 10 A black comedy about two Irish hitmen hiding in this European tourist hotspot (2 words)