

Media in the Movies

Across

- 1 Holly Hunter, and TV news journalism at large, must choose between style and substance in this workplace drama (2 words)
- 3 Jim Carrey's life is not what it seems in this early exploration of reality TV (3 words)
- 8 B&W period film depicting the on-air conflict between Edward R. Murrow and Joseph McCarthy (5 words)
- 9 William Randolph Hearst refused to mention this film in any of his papers (2 words)
- 10 "Legendary" anchorman who will read anything off of a teleprompter? (2 words)

Down

- 2 Redford and Hoffman investigate the Watergate scandal for THE WASHINGTON POST (4 words)
- 4 Al Pacino and Russell Crowe struggle to bring a tobacco industry whistleblower's testimony to air (2 words)
- 5 Cary Grant and Rosalind Russell flirt and spar while investigating a murder (3 words)
- 6 Kirk Douglas turns a man trapped in a cave into a media circus (4 words)
- 7 Jake Gyllenhaal stars in this "if it bleeds, it leads" TV journalism neo-noir