4/2/5 CINESPEAK
We don’t know about you but we’re healthily excited about being with people in packed-out movie theaters.

While, for the past two years, most of us have enjoyed the seemingly limitless options of online streaming content and been at home from the comfort of our couch, we know that nothing can fully replace the magic of community at a cinema.

So, in this spirit, we are offering up a fun and fantastic opportunity in the hopes of ensuring you never stop looking for community with friends, new and old.

On Fri 11th of April, the Greater Philadelphia region’s indie cinema, Cinespeak, is proud to host you for fun and online very soon.

THANK YOU for your support!

Team Cinespeak
