BRYN MAWR FILM INSTITUTE

presents the

SUMMER FILMMAKING WORKSHOP

Write, produce, direct, and edit a film under the guidance of professional media-makers. Collaborate to create a polished script and short film through the experiential process of pre-production, production, and post-production. Work with fellow aspiring filmmakers to learn the art and craft of filmmaking while creating a movie that expresses your ideas in your voice.

Get hands-on experience with professional equipment, use current techniques, and learn life and job skills through the inspiring and collaborative process of creating media art. Past workshops have produced romantic comedies, thoughtful dramas, and even a superhero parody.

Once made, your film won't gather any dust. We'll put it on the big screen at Bryn Mawr Film Institute.

Open to high school students, including rising ninth-graders. Space is limited, and an application is required. See the form on the reverse side.
